(INTRO)

(1) I don't remember, the day you left, It's kind of lost in the haze
I was so young, and it made no sense, I'm still confused, to this day

(PRE-CHOR) At first I knew, you were coming back, With all my heart I believed
(a) I was so sure, 'cause it made no sense, How could you really just leave

(CHORUS) How could the one, I've known for so long
How could you really just leave
Did I do something, to make you mad
Ya ever think about me

(Tag) I'd like to tell you how my day has been
And share a joke that I heard
That one I've known, for so long
How could you really just leave

(2) I had a plan, for the perfect ending, A daydream, fantasy
You'd come back home, on your special day, And see the present from me

(PRE-CHOR) Then I could prove, that I never, doubted, And then we all would embrace
(b) And when it happened, I would swear to never, Take it for granted again

(CHORUS)
