(INTRO)

(1) One of these days, My moment will come
 You won't have me, To kick around anymore
 You tell your friends, How I'm under your thumb
 They laugh and joke, About your artist bum

(2) When I find work, I'll get my own car
 I won't need yours, I'm gonna be a star
 So stop complaining, About the money I've spent
 I'll pay you back, For my share of the rent

(CHORUS) I run my own life, I said to myself
 Just stop complaining, I mumbled under my breath
 I guess I told her, Then she said, "What did you say?"
 Honey, you've lost weight, And you look great in that dress

(BREAK) I run my own life, I said to myself, I run my own life, I said to myself

(3) You hate the bars, You say that's why I'm broke
 I call it work, But you just call it a joke
 It's my career, I think I know what's best
 You'll change your tune, When I become a success

(CHORUS)

(SOLO) I run my own life, I said to myself, I run my own life, I said to myself
 I run my own life, I said to myself, I run my own life, I said to myself

(4) Well you could try, And have some confidence
 Just loosen up, You know you're never content
 I swear I'll get, The new TV out of hock
 Just promise Baby, That you won't change the locks

(CHORUS)

(OUTRO) I run my own life, I said to myself, I run my own life, I said to myself (repeat til fade)
