(1) There was a day, when there were no doubts
 In the beginning, when we were new
 I had a feeling, about our future
 But it was far, different, than this

(2) I know you love me, no matter what
 But that alone, may not be enough
 We've said the hurtful things, to each other
 Can we stand, this test of our love again

(CHORUS) Is this the end, Is this what we've come down to
 I can't believe, that we have changed, that, much
 Oh, Is this, What we've come down to
 I'm asking you, can this be the end, of, us

(3) We've got a history, of facing adversity
 We always came through it, as one
 Now we're at a crossroads, what happens next
 Will we give it up, or try, to hang on, again

(CHORUS)

(BRIDGE) After a fight, I take a drive, I hear a song
 It triggers a memory, I see your face
 You had the look of love, and I could do no wrong
 Now the harsh words are flying, We both end up crying
 It's all broken down, Where did we go wrong, Where, did we go wrong

(CHORUS) (repeat til fade)
